MASTERPIECE

East High is a composite picture of some of the greatest pieces of architecture ever built. Of course, many of these Grecian masterpieces are in ruins, but even after centuries of continuous use, some parts of them still remain today. So it is with East High. Not only will the outside remain, but also the knowledge gained on the inside will be retained for many years by those who have had, are having, and will have the opportunity to go here.

PORTALS

Looking through the portals of East High, one may visualize some of the multitude that have passed through here on its progress towards the outer world. Some of the graduates are well-known men and women in the world at large, while others are the quiet type, staying in the background, being helpful, and perhaps influencing others by their kindly advice.

RUGGED

This tall, gnarled tree has stood for a good many years before East High. Many people have passed beneath its boughs; many events have taken place underneath these branches. She has weathered many storms and has felt the pattering of numerous spring showers.

This rugged oak, which so impressively symbolizes the passing years, will again, in the spring of 1939, see hopeful graduates going out into a large world of experience and wisdom.

PLAYTIME

This is a scene familiar to almost all of the East High students, for this is the Lagoon. In the spring many of the school picnics are held here, for the sake of convenience and also for the splendid grounds to be used for amusements.

During spring and summer the children congregate to play baseball and practice golf. Many come and sit on the banks to fish. (They might even catch the three little fishies.) The river and the Lagoon are used for boating a good deal of the time in the summer.

By autumn, when the leaves are falling and the grass is turning brown, the grounds are used for games of various sorts. When winter creeps up on us, when the snows appear to give everything the look of fairyland, when Jack Frost writes his message on windows, then does the water freeze over, making it possible for crowds of skaters to unpack their skates and join the procession in the race for the ice.

Thus the Lagoon and the surrounding area serve the parents and children the year around.

TRIBUTE

Reposing on the hill at Burke Park, is a monument which signifies the tribute paid to those who lost their lives in the World War. This park was dedicated to a former East High student who lost his life along with many other East High graduates.

This monument pictures Peace bestowing gratitude upon her lads. May we never have to build another memorial depicting the same scene.

FACULTY

School buildings without a teaching staff in them are valueless to the community; books without teachers as guides are equally useless; illiterate citizens are the most useless.

"For the Service of Humanity" is the slogan of East High school, but more especially it is the motto of the faculty of the school. The teachers of the schools of the nation perform a great service to democracy. It is to the teachers, as well as the youth, of America that men look for the preservation of the doctrine of democracy. It is their duty—to instill into the heart and life of the student the creed of liberty—the joy of living in a country where one may enjoy the blessings of peace and freedom. It is they who are educating the mind of youth to best receive and appreciate the results of a democratic government. It is they who are saying to the boys and girls who will soon be young men and women: This has been done; this remains to be done; it is you who must do it. It is they who point the way; they who build with the most glorious of materials—the plastic mind of youth.

In their own community they have this to plan for:

A great majority of the graduates of East High will remain in Des Moines and Iowa. Many of the parents of present pupils were East High graduates; many future students will be sons and daughters of today's pupils. Thus the ideas and plans which East High teachers foster in the students will result in a better future for school and community. Habits of courtesy and duty and ideals of honor and service established in high school days will not be forgotten in later life.

However, the faculty has an even more direct influence on the lives of present students. In high school many of the students, helped and inspired by the teachers, make decisions concerning their life work. By arousing a desire to rise above circumstances, a teacher can help the underprivileged student and aid many in more material ways.

Thus the faculty of East High school best exemplifies the school's truly great motto — "For the Service of Humanity."—To them the students owe a tremendous debt which they can best repay by equal service to their school, community and government.

ANOTHER YEAR

Another year has progressed through the portals of time,
Another year sees the faces of seniors sublime,
Another year in which joys and sorrows we share,
Another year that we can hold and compare.

The earth has added one more year to its age,
The planets and stars still predict for the sage,
The moon has continued to swing 'round this world,
Where trouble and strife live 'neath one flag unfurled.

The countries in trouble lie over the sea,
May they never reach over to you and to me.
We've seen the year pass with its good and its bad,
We've done many things both delightful and sad.

Another year in which many friends were made,
Another year memorable that will not fade.
Another year that we lock safe in our hearts to remain,
Another year to look back on when we gain our small fame.

—JEAN ALLEN.

CLASS WILL

Being of sound mind and health, and in the presence of reliable witnesses, the Senior Class of 1939 wishes to bequeath the following gifts of various and sundry talents to their fortunate recipients.

J. Aloysius Cochran bequeaths upon any debating hopeful his awe-inspiring eloquence and verbosity with which he bombards less fortunate constituents when they challenge him on some negligible triviality which is so important in this great man's mind.

Roseanne Allen, the belle of Berwick, leaves her attractiveness to Frances Riley, the diminutive Madonna.

Bob Appell, the Casanova (mountain style) leaves his technique with the gals to Stanley Arnold.

Gene Rosburg, the misogynist (dictionary reference, Page XX) bequeaths this noble attribute to Delbert Van Dorn.

Ruth Corey leaves her terpsichorean aptitudes to Betty Lou Heintz. (Trip the light fantastic.)

Jane Williams and Jack Dewey, the silly citizens, collaborate in bequeathing their screwball personalities to Keith Garbett, who really needs no help.

Margaret Johnson leaves her dignity and sedateness to Gretchen Hartman. (Deah! Deah!)

Jeane (Squirt) Evans leaves her excessive stature to Imogene Templeton.

Kaz Kruzick bestows on all the 10-B's his ability to bluff the teachers. (A fine start for the young'uns.)

Billy O'Brien leaves his ability to have a good time, no matter what the circumstances, to Larry Chamberlin.

Bud and Ann Swanson, the duet, bequeath their mutual pugnacity to all other brother-sister combinations. (Up wit' ya dukes.)

Max (Killer) Burke, the artiste of writhe and wriggle, leaves his grappling ability to Raymond DeBakey.

Carl Gustafson leaves his sharpshooting ability to Jimmy Bain, the "wee Scot."

Jean Allen bequeaths that silly laugh to Mary McCarthy. (She should take it with her.)

Alvin Hunt leaves his classroom clowning and methods of exasperating teachers to Robert Musselman.

Norris (call me Tarzan) Nelson who eats like a bird-a peck at a time bequeaths his dainty appetite to James (Twin-Ton) Kenect.

Audrey Kinley and Margie Way, the quintessence of mischief, leave their obstreperous traits and tendencies to Dorothy (Brat) McCarty. (Pepper to the peppery.)

Elmer (Enoch) Gee, the rah! rah! boy, bequeaths his yelling agitating gyrations and vociferous accompaniment to Syd (Powerhouse) Jacobs.

Stanley (Snapshot) Barman generously bequeaths his technique with camera obscura to Marvin (Fatso) Dubansky (Look at da boidy.)

Bob Wakefield, classroom commentator par excellence, leaves his ability to correct teachers to Maynard Jones.

Kaye Glines leaves her demure and retiring nature to anyone who can handle it. (Haw!)

That decrepit and ignominious aggregation of would-be journalists, the Scroll Staff, bequeath their brazen attempts at equivocation and prevarication to all future stooges who may degrade themselves to such an extent as to emulate their insidious predecessors.

CLASS PROPHECY

June 3, 1959

Dear Jane:

I am now in Des Moines, visiting the World's Fair and have run across many of our old classmates. The first person I saw upon alighting from the Century Flash (the new streamliner designed by Bob Wakefield) was Fashion Designer Harry Carlson. Standing by his side was the beautiful blond show girl, Doris Foster. Upon arriving at my hotel, I was cordially greeted by the manager, Alvin Hunt, and was shown to my room by the bell boy, David Jones. However, I was disturbed all night long by the operatic practicings of Gigglionio (Ralph) Ward and by the party given by Debutante Alice Schelldorf for the great celebrity, Marjorie Haag.

When I arose the next morning, my breakfast was brought in to me by Betty Barr. As I had a very severe toothache, I visited Dr. Kenny Walker and his assistant, Kaye Glines. I left the office smelling vaguely like camphor, manufactured by James Head, and decided to go shopping. I bought a very original and striking gown from the great designer, Margaret Johnson, and a hat from Janete Addye.

The next old grad I saw was Ruth Corey, who is now redecorating the home of Gene Rosenberg, the band leader. She took me to lunch and immediately afterwards I left for the Fair. Entering the Fair grounds—by the way, they are now owned by John Ralston, electric lighting done by that Master Electrician Kenny Smith—the first sound that greeted (?) my ears was the loud barking of that master barker, Phil Englund. I then bought a hot dog from Francesca Bianco. The next booth I visited was that of the Indian Fakir and who do you think was charming the reptiles? Bob Rowat! The next booth contained an advertisement for the "World's Tallest Woman"—Audrey Kinley. Then I decided to go to the stock pavilion where the hog-calling contest was being held. This contest was won by Bob Hamborg and afterwards the judge, Bob Heggen, stated that he believed that hogs came clear from Van Buren, Arkansas. This necessitated a large supply of corn so Farmer Guy Woodward's prize-winning hybrid was used to feed the extra pork.

Next Frances Ayres' rooster was given a prize for having the loudest crow. Deciding next to go to the Women's and Children's building, I was just in time to see Lois Jean Kerr's dance recital.

Rebecca Ury's apple cider was so pleasing to the judges that time out had to be called for consultation.

The symbol for this fair, by the way, was designed by Alvino Andrighetti and is a square brick with round corners. He was chosen by the President of the Fair, Othel Green and his secretary, Karen Pauli.

Just off Midway, we encountered a dog show whose chief attraction was Jane Meacham's Pekingese. This was an advertisement for her kennels and Meacham's prize dog food containing cottage cheese, spinach, and seafood for muscles. In the next concession was Jimmie Olds selling neckties for Jean Hillestad's cats. Today's specialty was a polka-dot tie with a double breasted coat for each Siamese cat sold.

After wandering around for awhile and talking to that dignified young matron, Maxine Young, and the Circus Queen, Mary Borg, I decided to call it a day and return to my hotel. I bought a paper, edited by Jack Cochran, from Elmer Gee. I then was wine and dined royally by that handsome screen hero with the million-dollar profile, Keith Houser. I had just returned to my hotel room when the Fuller-Brush man called and who do you think it was? None other than that windy salesman, Bob Denny. After finally getting rid of him, I turned on the radio to listen to Ernie Adams telling the story of Red Riding Hood and the Three Bears on the Children's Hour. This program is sponsored by Ye Old Red Hair Dye put out by Marjorie Way. After this program was over a commercial was given by the founder of The Better Husband's Bureau, William T. O'Brien. His subject was, "How to Sweep the Floor."

I then decided that after a strenuous day like that one, I had better go to bed.

Good night and pleasant dreams.

Love,

Teragram Artiste.

For its government, East High turns its eyes to the Student Council. This organization is made up of one representative from each home room in the school, elected to serve one semester, and is guided by Miss Helmreich, Girls' Advisor; Mr. Williams, Boys' Advisor; and Mr. Prichard, Principal. The organization's aim is to promote leadership among the students and give them the opportunity of governing themselves.

Third row: Johnson, Baker, LaFavre, Voshell, Raymond, Cavanaugh, Worley, Kress, West, Brennan, Carlston.

SCROLL ADVERTISING AND BUSINESS STAFF

First row: Hoskins, Corey, Englund. Second row: Mr. Stratton, Denny Booth, Mr. Olsen.

The East High Scroll, with Mr. Stratton as Editorial Advisor, Mr. Olson as Business Advisor, Miss Macy as Art Advisor, and Margaret Winder as Editor-in-Chief, won first place in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association contest last fall. This organization is composed of a group of hard-working students who put out a fine publication. . . . Much of the financial success of the Scroll is due the excellent work of the Advertising Staff, which convinces Des Moines firms of the excellence of the Scroll.

DEBATE ASSOCIATION

Under the capable leadership of Jack Cochran, the Intra-Mural Debating Association of East High has carried out its pledge of promoting debate work by sponsoring tournaments and awarding a medal for the champion team. The faculty advisor is Miss McEniry. . . . Offering hospitality to all our visitors, the Monitors are of vital importance to East High. The conduct and appearance of our halls are in the hands of these efficient people who are under the supervision of Mr. Williams. They must be courteous and willing to offer information to outsiders and students at all times.

MOVIE MONITORS AND OPERATORS

LIBRARY STAFF

During the noon movies, the students which comprise the Movie Staff take your pennies and gain experience running the interesting films. They are under the supervision of Mr. Yount and Mr. Stevens. . . . The qualities expected from assistants chosen by Miss Larson for the Library Staff are capability and a sense of responsibility. This staff performs the numerous duties that make the library an enjoyable reading room as well as an important source of information.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

First row: Clement, McCarty, Harvey, Kravovich, Lecky, Smith, Henderson, Walsh, Walls, Wilson, King, Smith, Bufkin. Second row: Petterson, Stanfield, Smith, Lawson, Newton, Burton, Leffew, Sterner, Houck, Armstrong, Falk, Parkison. STAGE HANDS, WARDROBE GIRLS, AND USHERS

First row: Scanland, Long, Anderson, Welch. Second row: Thomas, Steinway, Beckham, Newwerth, Wiley. Third row: Jolly, Taylor, Walker, Deaton, Osborne, Norris.

Everything from answering the telephone to filing is the range in which the Office Staff works. These girls are selected by the office executives to assist them during the day by running errands and keeping the records straight. . . . Truly living up to the motto of our school, "For the Service of Humanity," are the Stage Hands and Wardrobe Girls, for they give unsparingly of their time in performing their duties without any hope of recompense or monogram. They are under the direction of Mr. Hostetter and Miss Jordan.

GIRL RESERVES

GIRL MONITORS

With a long standing reputation as a club which develops good character traits and points the way to better living habits, The Girl Reserves strive for better health and higher moral standards. Offering hospitality to all our visitors, the Monitors are of vital importance to East High. The conduct and appearance of our halls are in the hands of these efficient people who are under the supervision of Mr. Williams. They must be courteous and willing to offer information to outsiders and students at all times.

"MRS. WIGGS OF THE CABBAGE PATCH"

With an efficient play cast, the Spring play, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," was presented with great success. Under the capable instruction of Mrs. Laser, the students performed with the poise and ease of professional actors and actresses. . . . One of the finest groups in East High is the A Cappella Choir directed by Miss Greenhill. This group studies the more serious type of music and is well-known throughout the city. To them we are indebted for some of our most enjoyable musical memories.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Greenhills, is of particular interest to those girls who enjoy serious music. . . . The Boys' Glee Club provides entertainment for those who are interested in singing. Under the direction of Miss Greenhill, these boys were on some assembly programs which were enjoyed by all East High. This semester Miss Greenhill had a Student Assistant from Drake to help in the teaching of her classes.

BAND

ORCHESTRA

Besides offering the students of East High a chance for musical expression, the East High Band is a lively accompaniment for our assembly programs, especially during the football season. After this season is over, the band turns largely to concert work. . . . Giving the students who play stringed instruments a chance to express themselves, the East High Orchestra is largely concerned with concert music.

DANCE BAND

MUSIC CONTESTANTS

One of the pepiest groups in the school is the Swing Band, which plays for many of the school entertainments. The boys play the newest tunes in the latest styles and are excellent musicians. . . . Every year in the spring a contest is held in which anyone who desires to do so, may show his individual musicianship on his particular instrument. East High has always been noted for its unusual ability to receive many "Superiors" in the duration of the contest. Miss Greenhill and Mr. McWhirter are the advisors.

AMATEUR AUTHORS

BRUSH AND PALETTE

First row: Main, Richards, Carroll, Giebrich, Kellar, Crawford, Wells, Leach, Townsend, Jaworski. Second row: Utt, De Bower, Hoskins, Macy, McKinney, Wimmer, Wolcott, Brim, Marshall, Kirkpatrick. Third row: Pack, Mitchell, McClurg, Valineer, Boston, Rhodes, Anderson, Harlan, White.

At the beginning of the semester, Miss Scott's Amateur Authors Club divided themselves up into three groups: essay, short story, and poem. At each meeting someone from each group submitted a paper for comment by a selected board. . . . Miss Macy holds the Brush and Palette Club in check during the course of the semester. The period is spent in doing that which pertains to Art. Modeling in clay, painting, and stenciling are some of the chief items on which they work.

BROADCASTERS

Through special speakers and excursions, the Broadcasters Club, sponsored by Mr. Stratton, included in its scope everything from radio script writing to announcing and transmission. . . . Organized to promote interest in all phases of photography, the Camera Club, under the direction of Mr. Ferrier, accomplished this aim by means of speakers and field trips. At its last meeting in the Spring, a Salon was held in which each student presented his best work for judging and awarding of prizes.

CAP AND DAGGER

SHAKESPEAREAN

With a friendly spirit, the Cap and Dagger Club tried to create an interest in dramatics. Under the leadership of Miss Bonfield, the girls read skits and plays and give readings as entertainment on their programs. . . . The purpose of the Shakespearean Club is to create an extensive acquaintance with good literature, especially the life and works of Wm. Shakespeare and other famous writers of his time. Every semester the 12-B's present scenes from Macbeth for the interest and enjoyment of the Seniors.

CASTLE CLUB

E EPI TAN

Organized for the purpose of developing an interest in the game of chess, the Castle Club, sponsored by Mr. Seevers, promoted sociability among the boy students of East High. The highlight of the semester was a tournament at which prizes were offered for the winner and runner-up. . . . Formerly known as the Boy's Debating Society, the E Epi Tan Club is the oldest organization in East High. However, the purpose of the club changed recently from debating to promoting leadership and general sociability. Mr. Lyman is the advisor.

Modern trends in various phases of social life is the basic principle of the Modernistic Club. With the help of Miss Mitchell, the girls held a style show in cooperation with the Home Economics Club and Younkers. The club also enjoyed a social tea in its curriculum. . . . By helping girls develop their personalities, the Sub-Deb Club, sponsored by Miss Russell, tried to guide its members to happy, useful lives. While still comparatively new, the club has had several speakers and field trips, and also enjoyed a social tea.

SODALITAS ROMANA

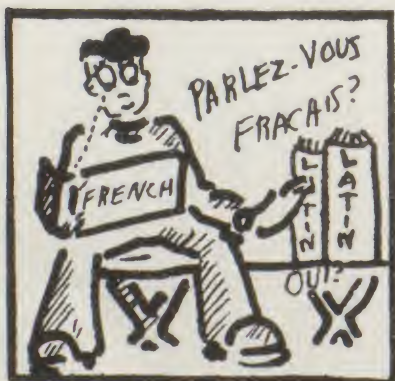

First row: Haskins, Peterson, Gunn, Lindquist, Micka, Rosenberg, Carroll, Rhone, Johnson, Grimes, Meyer
 Second row: Wilson, Wilkinson, Brown, Brustman, Albright, Smith, Le-vitt, Essy, Kindree, Smith, Shepard, Third row: Ferguson, Archer, Schmidt, Huelsbeck, Zaliller, Dvorsky, Mackie, Johnson.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

First row: Stohlgren, Halligan, Teig-land, Jordan, Way, Harvey, Shanna-han, Wright, Landers, Cline, Jensen
 Second row: Lyman, Lecky, Wasch-kowsky, Haney, Sargent, Sargent
 Harter, Finch, LaPera, Hook, Third row: Bowman, DeCoursey, Lozier, Miller, Bruner, Oppenheim, Hild, Smith, Lindquist, Fourth row: Chop-ard, McPherson, Hardy, Williams, Paye, Barr, Booth, Iserman, Reding-ton.

Subjects related to Latin are studied as part of the semester's program in the Sodalitas Romana Club under the sponsorship of Miss Patterson. One event of importance was their Roman banquet to which they wore the Roman costumes. . . . The aim of the Le Cercle Francais Club is to further the study and uses of the French language and to become better acquainted with the French mode of living. The meetings of the semester are climaxed in the Fall by a party and in the Spring by a picnic held in a near-by park.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL

COSMOPOLITAN

First row: Lewis, Budiselich, Burchhalter, Bianco, Harvey, Wittkowski, Burt, Addy, Gebard, Steinway, Budiselich. Second row: Nauman, St. John, Parkison, Long, Long, Comegys, Swan, Howe, Nicholls. Third row: Larson, Christensen, Wilmoth, Finch, Papian, Stafford, Gustafson, Kirk. Fourth row: Crooks, Lynn, Neilson, Metcalfe, Smith, Sneddon.

Miss Balliet is advisor of the Spanish Club which is of special interest to students of that subject. Modern Spain and the Latin-American countries are discussed through current events. The club also planned an exhibit of curios from these countries and an American play written in Spanish. . . . Promoting world friendship is the aim of the Cosmopolitan Club. Members feel that they most nearly approach this end by studying the customs and manners of, and by actually corresponding with, young people of other countries. It is sponsored by Miss Merrill.

NAMOLITA

ENTRE NOUS

As its name implies, the Namolita Club, includes nature, etiquette, and literature in its main programs. Speakers on these topics account for many of the interesting times. The girls also enjoy parties and picnics with their sponsor, Miss Snyder. . . . The name of the Entre Nous Club means "between ourselves." In the club the girls study music, literature, manners, customs, and a great many more things that are of interest to young girls of high school age. The gala event of the year is a picnic held in the spring.

EUCLIDEAN

TRIPOD

First row: McMurray, Short, Scanland, Cocking, Day, Fayville. Second row: Coellner, Burke, Lydic, Flowers, Bakalyar, McPherson.

Under the advisorship of Miss Knauer and Miss Hargis, the Euclidean Club sponsored many good times in the discovery of different uses of mathematics. Its members enjoyed parties, speakers, and other interesting programs. . . . The fundamentals of civil engineering are studied by the Tripod Club. With Mr. Bakalyar as their leader, the boys studied surveying, the designing and constructing of bridges, and also some astronomy.

FISH AND GAME

Third row: Beener, Olson, Camp, Weaver, Storesund, Hogbin, Newton, Kouri. Fourth row: Wittkowski, Addy, Sneddon, Suddeth, Miller, Mellerup, Anderson, Oliver.

Organized with the purpose of promoting fly-tying in East High, the Fish and Game Club sponsored by Mr. Wilson has expanded so as now to include in its scope fly and bait casting, fire arms, and all forms of conservation. . . . Sponsored by Miss Wetzstein, the Home Economics Club offers the girls of East High a chance to hear interesting speakers, take entertaining field trips, and win worthwhile friends. One of the big features of the club is the annual picnic and also their amusing initiations.

PHILOMATHEAN

ZETAGATHEAN

To promote interest along literary lines has always been the aim of the Philomathean Club. This year, the members deviated slightly from their usual subjects and studied modern musical compositions in association with older ones. . . . Housewife versus the Career Woman was the theme of the Zetagathean Club this semester. At one of the meetings, Miss McKee of Amos Hiatt spoke on the career, and at a later meeting a housewife was the speaker. The season was climaxed by a banquet presided over by Miss McEniry.

SCIENCE

First row: Welch, Olson, Groves, Haas, Lecky, Owens, Dailey, Brennan, Davis. Second row: Haas, Arnold, Deter, Ervin, Lundahl, Allen, Welch, Schauer, Appell. Third row: Siverson, Clark, Edman, Wakefield, Head, Frankhouser, Best, Chinn.

Fourth row: Easter, Semple, Rees, Lemon, Derham, Hudson, Erquist, Hartman, Kranovich, Olson, Schelldorf, Barnes, darfer, Bergman.

A mixed group of physics and chemistry students made up the Science Club. With Mr. Siverson as advisor, they performed experiments in both fields and are members of the Junior Academy of Science. At conventions held by the Academy, the club is always represented. . . . The club sponsored by Miss Elwood and Mr. Easter works hand in hand with the commercial department, and is known as the Shorthand Speed Society. A number of speakers from various business organizations have appeared before the group this semester.

SPECIAL INTEREST

First row: Greenstein, Evans, Kinley, Riley, Wagner, Merritt, Stoppkotte, Dick, Wood, LaFavre, Moore. Second row: Gee, Jacobs, Jacobs, Greenstein, Way, Krohn, Miller, Cornell, Campbell, Mott, Beghtol. In its scope the Special Interest Club included all the activities interesting to young people that other clubs have omitted in their curriculum such as dancing, etc. . . . Organized this semester, Mr. Jackson's Esquire Club was, as its name implies, of general interest to boys throughout the school. Through trips and speakers, the members endeavor to develop leadership, personality, and interesting pastimes.

10-B GIRLS

JANITORS, MATRONS, AND CAFETERIA LADIES

To get better acquainted with East High was the aim of the 10-B Girls' Club. The members, with Miss Helmreich as the guide, took trips about the building in an effort to show the girls the functions of their new school. . . . Our school is kept clean and in repair by the Custodians, headed by Mr. Wheeler, and the Matron, Mrs. Ruby. Tasty luncheons and banquets are prepared for us by our capable Cafeteria Staff, supervised by Mrs. Wigenjost.

1. Alice Schelldorf. 2. Ruby Lewis. 3. Frances Ayers. 4. Helen La Mar. 5. Jeanne Carroll and Minnie Gebard. 6. Eunice Dick and Edward Lewis. 7. Arnold and Annabell Swanson. 8. Kenneth Walker. 9. TRACK

In line with the custom here at East High, the coming of spring has brought forth another squad of aspiring and enthusiastic hopefuls who have determined to do their part in maintaining the high standards and unimpeachable reputation that has long been established by former great East High cinder-stars.

Although bolstered by twelve returning lettermen, the tracksters, after a hard struggle, lost the state indoor crown, held by East High for the past two years, to a fortunate opponent upon whom the gods of fate seemed to have smiled in approbation at this demonstration of athletic attainments.

It cannot be over-emphasized how much value is derived from the rigorous training involved in the production of the finished track star. The physique built up by this constant use of calisthenics will show in the development of all faculties—physical, mental, and moral. And therefore, in some measure, the men of the track team are repaid for their valiant and inspired performance as members of the indomitable East High team.

WRESTLING

The followers of the grunt and groan racket came twisting through to a sensational season this year with an undefeated record. Led by Max Burke, their intrepid captain, they committed mayhem on all would-be challengers of their supremacy. In rapid succession they met and downed with devastating ease all comers, some of whom were supposedly good wrestlers.

All this conquering would not have been possible were it not for that master of strategy, Ben Ferrier, whose modesty isn't at all becoming when interviewed as to the prowess of his proteges. All in all, however, these men and their coach demonstrated ably the power of properly applied teamwork.

SWIMMING

The East High Swimming Team, ably coached by that doughty trainer of men, Alex (Scotty) Russell, and capably led in their endeavors by co-captains Ernest Adams and William Haltom came through another season valorously, though somewhat ineffectively, flaunting the Red and Black banners of Lee Township in the faces of sundry opponents. In spite of showing the great spirit and fight that is a part of every East High team, they were unable to establish a very impressive record.

Being opposed by more successful components of the aquatic sport had no effect in breaking the valient spirit instilled in these water beetles by the stiff competition and inflexible training encountered.

TENNIS

Stalwartly backed by a large out-turn of impressive-appearing racquet-swingers only one of whom, however, is a letterman, the tennis team is once again sharpening its teeth in preparation for taking into camp everything which they encounter during the oncoming season.

This fast-moving sport is fast becoming one of the most prominent, indulged in by both young and old, and is therefore extremely valuable because of its social benefits.

The tennis team has an auspicious future in the eyes of that brilliant master of tennis technique, Mr. Wires, who has so successfully guided his understudies through the stormy seas of racquet competition.

BOY'S GOLF

With their ranks bolstered by the return of one of their best lettermen the golfers will commence competition with the hopeful preps of the high school city series on May 13. Leading up to this meet, and the state meet on June 3rd they will challenge the driving ability, chipping, putting, slicing, and hooking abilities of their respective opponents on weekly Saturday meets.

Under the competent supervision of Mr. Hostetter, East will be the host at the State Meet and hopes to duplicate past achievements which Lee Township had attained prior to the rather disastrous three years preceding the present time.

Second nut: "Where is he?"

First nut: "I see I am associating with a stooge. I guess I'll leave."

We've heard about some forgetful students, but when the senior editor of the Quill staff comes to school without removing the top portion of his pajamas, we begin to wonder.

One: "M. Way—has she got Umph!"

Another: "Maybe so, but I was in one of her classes, and when she would recite, you couldn't hear her across the room."

One: "Who wants to be across the room?"

A little girl was taken by her father to an old-fashioned church for the first time. She stared for a while open-mouthed watching the old Highland minister, shut up in a box pulpit, thumping the Bible in the accepted style and waving his arms like flails. Unable to stand it any longer she whispered tearfully: "Father, what'll we do if he gets out?"

Pop (a Socialist): "What made you stay away from school, son?"

Son: "Class hatred, Pop."

John R. was visiting a farm. He came to the barn where they were milking. When he saw the hobble on a cow, he said: "Oh, look, they got that cow hand-cuffed."

Six of us were being taken through the chemistry building at Ames, on Science day, when Robert Charlesworth, became interested in the room containing some five hundred rats or more. So interester was he in these friendly little creatures that the party had to go on, leaving him to spend more time there looking for some cockroaches.

HOMELIER THAN LINCOLN

Though not noted for his beauty, Abraham Lincoln had some pride in his appearance. One day he met a man who looked at his closely and then drew a gun.

"Stranger," the man said, "I swore that if I ever met a man homelier than I, I'd shoot him on sight."

"Brother," drawled Abe, "if I'm homelier than you, I reckon you might as well."

WHAT'S THE BIG IDEA?

An ardent angler had a four hours' tussle with a huge salmon before he was able to land it. He took it home in ecstasy and related his struggles to his wife, who couldn't see anything in fishing.

She listened in bored silence and then remarked, "But, my dear Arthur, why didn't you cut the string and get rid of the brute, if he was so troublesome?"

PROFIT AND LOSS

In a civil service examination given in New York City, some time ago, one of the questions asked was the following:

"If a man buys an article for $12.25 and sells it for $9.75, does he gain or lose by the transaction?"

One of our modern young sweet things, after studying for a while, is said to have given the following answer:

"He gains on the cents, but loses on the dollars."
